Congratulations! Only the very best businesses have been chosen to receive the 2012 CMUS Talk of the Town Award for Excellence in Customer Satisfaction. The award was created to showcase companies that excel in serving their customers and getting their high marks. Customers of Grace 1720 have spoken, scoring some of the highest ratings possible. Grace 1720 now has its very own dedicated search page and listing on www.talkofthetownnews.com/awards2012/6784211720. Press releases and other promotional information will be sent to regional and national wire services announcing winners.

Celebration Media U.S. (CMUS) is a co-sponsor of the award and an independent professional research and marketing company that monitors positive and negative reviews, blogs and social networks to determine the highest-rated and top-reviewed businesses in all 50 states of the country and parts of Canada. The 2012 CMUS Talk of the Town Award is here to celebrate your high achievement in customer satisfaction. We believe that a company can only grow by excelling in customer care and providing the best customer experience possible. We are proud to deliver this news to you and we encourage you to view your ratings now listed online and use the award information to thank staff, customers and build new business.

Congratulations for making a difference in your community and providing the services, products, management, leadership and staff that has earned your award rating.
